Summary of reasons for decision:

The image is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. It depicts a child and an older teen or young adult engaged in sexual activity. The image is clearly intended to arouse those with a sexual interest in young boys. The availability of such material encourages the creation or reinforcement of this sexual interest by presenting children as appropriate subjects for adult sexual gratification. The objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention to limit the availability of publications that promote and support the exploitation of children for sexual purposes and also reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from such exploitation.
